

Focus Letters:

L O P N H

1. Alphabet Matching: (upper and lower case letters and sounds)

~Using only the teacher set of letters, the teacher goes over the letter name and the sound of each upper case letter as she places them on the blue board.

~The lower case letters are presented as the teacher places each letter under one of the upper case letters and asks if it matches. The students give thumbs up or thumbs down.

~The letter name and sound for each should be repeated as the upper and lowercase letters are matched.

2. Alphabet Production:

~Model the letter formation on a dry erase board, then write it again as students make the letter in the air.

~The students use a dry erase board to form the upper and lower case /L/.

~Make sure students continue to make the /L/ sound every time they write.

3. Guess My Word: (Syllable Segmenting and Blending)

~The teacher begins by saying "guess my word."

~Then the teacher vocally segments the word. Students should then say the word.

~The teacher then shows the picture of the word and asks someone to use the word in a sentence.

Words: let-ter paint-er neck-lace ham-burg-er liz-ard pre-sent

4. Sound Boxes: (phoneme segmentation and blending & write and blend)

~Each student will need a sound box strip, 3 rocks and a dry erase marker.

~The teacher will say a word and the students will move a rock into a box: one box for each sound.

~Then the students will blend the word together and move the rocks from left to right.

~The students will say each sound separately demonstrating with their fingers and write a sound in each box.

~Make sure students once again blend the sounds back together. Words: mop hot cot pot lot

5. Picture Strips: (Phoneme Matching and initial Sound Fluency)

~Each student will need picture strip and one rock.

~Cover the picture that starts with : /l/ /o/ /p/ /n/ /h/

6. Letter Strips: (Initial Sounds Fluency and Initial Sound Isolation)

~Cover the letter sound that _____ begins with:

Words: lamp purple nest hand octopus

7. Rhyming BINGO Cards (can be used out of group for rhyming bingo)

~Each student needs a BINGO card and tokens to use to play BINGO

~Cover the picture that rhymes with (say the first word of the pair)

better-letter, blizzard-lizard, lumber-number, pickle-nickel, muppet-puppet, riding-hiding, doodle-noodle, madder-ladder, locket-pocket

8. Evaluation:

~Before each child leaves, have them give the name and beginning SOUND of each letter on their strip.

Focus Letters:

L O P N H

1. Alphabet Matching: (upper and lower case letters and sounds)

~Using only the teacher set of letters, the teacher goes over the letter name and the sound of each upper case letter as she places them on the blue board.

~The lower case letters are presented as the teacher places each letter under one of the upper case letters and asks if it matches. The students give thumbs up or thumbs down.

~The letter name and sound for each should be repeated as the upper and lowercase letters are matched.

2. Alphabet Production:

~Model the letter formation on a dry erase board, then write it again as students make the letter in the air.

~The students use a dry erase board to form the upper and lower case /O/.

~Make sure students continue to make the /O/ sound every time they write.

3. Guess My Word: (Syllable Segmenting and Blending)

~The teacher begins by saying "guess my word."

~Then the teacher vocally segments the word. Students should then say the word.

~The teacher then shows the picture of the word and asks someone to use the word in a sentence.

Words: laun-dry pil-grim num-ber hid-ing nick-el pen-ny

4. Sound Boxes: (phoneme segmentation and blending & write and blend)

~Each student will need a sound box strip, 3 rocks and a dry erase marker.

~The teacher will say a word and the students will move a rock into a box: one box for each sound.

~Then the students will blend the word together and move the rocks from left to right.

~ The students will say each sound separately demonstrating with their fingers and write a sound in each box.

Make sure students once again blend the sounds back together. Words: dot hop mop cop pop

5. Picture Strips: (Phoneme Matching and initial Sound Fluency)

~Each student will need picture strip and one rock.

~Cover the picture that starts with : /h/ /n/ /p/ /o/ /l/

6. Letter Strips: (Initial Sounds Fluency and Initial Sound Isolation)

~Cover the letter sound that _____ begins with: Words: ladder pie nine home on

7. Rhyming BINGO Cards (can be used out of group for rhyming bingo)

~Each student needs a BINGO card and tokens to use to play BINGO

~Cover the picture that rhymes with (say the first word of the pair)

better-letter, blizzard-lizard, lumber-number, pickle-nickel, muppet-puppet, riding-hiding, doodle-noodle, madder-ladder, locket-pocket

8. Evaluation:

~Before each child leaves, have them give the name and beginning SOUND of each letter on their strip.

Focus Letters:

L O P N H

1. Alphabet Matching: (upper and lower case letters and sounds)

~Using only the teacher set of letters, the teacher goes over the letter name and the sound of each upper case letter as she places them on the blue board.

~The lower case letters are presented as the teacher places each letter under one of the upper case letters and asks if it matches. The students give thumbs up or thumbs down.

~The letter name and sound for each should be repeated as the upper and lowercase letters are matched.

2. Alphabet Production:

~Model the letter formation on a dry erase board, then write it again as students make the letter in the air.

~The students use a dry erase board to form the upper and lower case /P/.

~Make sure students continue to make the /P/ sound every time they write.

3. Guess My Word: (Syllable Segmenting and Blending)

~The teacher begins by saying "guess my word."

~Then the teacher vocally segments the word. Students should then say the word.

~The teacher then shows the picture of the word and asks someone to use the word in a sentence.

Words: lol-li-pop pa-per noo-dle heat-er nurs-er-y lad-der

4. Sound Boxes: (phoneme segmentation and blending & write and blend)

~Each student will need a sound box strip, 3 rocks and a dry erase marker.

~The teacher will say a word and the students will move a rock into a box: one box for each sound.

~Then the students will blend the word together and move the rocks from left to right.

~The students will say each sound separately demonstrating with their fingers and write a sound in each box.

~Make sure students once again blend the sounds back together. Words: lob sob hop rob cob

5. Picture Strips: (Phoneme Matching and initial Sound Fluency)

~Each student will need picture strip and one rock.

~Cover the picture that starts with : /o/ /p/ /n/ /h/ /l/

6. Letter Strips: (Initial Sounds Fluency and Initial Sound Isolation)

~Cover the letter sound that _____ begins with: Words: Light pink number half October

7. Rhyming BINGO Cards (can be used out of group for rhyming bingo)

~Each student needs a BINGO card and tokens to use to play BINGO

~Cover the picture that rhymes with (say the first word of the pair)

better-letter, blizzard-lizard, lumber-number, pickle-nickel, muppet-puppet, riding-hiding, doodle-noodle, madder-ladder, locket-pocket

8. Evaluation:

~Before each child leaves, have them give the name and beginning SOUND of each letter on their strip.

Focus Letters:

L O P N H

1. Alphabet Matching: (upper and lower case letters and sounds)

~Using only the teacher set of letters, the teacher goes over the letter name and the sound of each upper case letter as she places them on the blue board.

~The lower case letters are presented as the teacher places each letter under one of the upper case letters and asks if it matches. The students give thumbs up or thumbs down.

~The letter name and sound for each should be repeated as the upper and lowercase letters are matched.

2. Alphabet Production:

~Model the letter formation on a dry erase board, then write it again as students make the letter in the air.

~The students use a dry erase board to form the upper and lower case /N/.

~Make sure students continue to make the /N/ sound every time they write.

3. Guess My Word: (Syllable Segmenting and Blending)

~The teacher begins by saying "guess my word."

~Then the teacher vocally segments the word. Students should then say the word.

~The teacher then shows the picture of the word and asks someone to use the word in a sentence.

Words: lip-stick pump-kin news-pa-per ham-mer pup-pet pock-et

4. Sound Boxes: (phoneme segmentation and blending & write and blend)

~Each student will need a sound box strip, 3 rocks and a dry erase marker.

~The teacher will say a word and the students will move a rock into a box: one box for each sound.

~Then the students will blend the word together and move the rocks from left to right.

~The students will say each sound separately demonstrating with their fingers and write a sound in each box.

~Make sure students once again blend the sounds back together. Words: sod rod cob hop hot

5. Picture Strips: (Phoneme Matching and initial Sound Fluency)

~Each student will need picture strip and one rock.

~Cover the picture that starts with : /p/ /n/ /h/ /l/ /o/

6. Letter Strips: (Initial Sounds Fluency and Initial Sound Isolation)

~Cover the letter sound that _____ begins with: Words: lion page napkin ham off

7. Rhyming BINGO Cards (can be used out of group for rhyming bingo)

~Each student needs a BINGO card and tokens to use to play BINGO

~Cover the picture that rhymes with (say the first word of the pair)

better-letter, blizzard-lizard, lumber-number, pickle-nickel, muppet-puppet, riding-hiding, doodle-noodle, madder-ladder, locket-pocket

8. Evaluation:

~Before each child leaves, have them give the name and beginning SOUND of each letter on their strip.

Focus Letters:

L O P N H

1. Alphabet Matching: (upper and lower case letters and sounds)

~Using only the teacher set of letters, the teacher goes over the letter name and the sound of each upper case letter as she places them on the blue board.

~The lower case letters are presented as the teacher places each letter under one of the upper case letters and asks if it matches. The students give thumbs up or thumbs down.

~The letter name and sound for each should be repeated as the upper and lowercase letters are matched.

2. Alphabet Production:

~Model the letter formation on a dry erase board, then write it again as students make the letter in the air.

~The students use a dry erase board to form the upper and lower case /H/.

~Make sure students continue to make the /H/ sound every time they write.

3. Guess My Word: (Syllable Segmenting and Blending)

~The teacher begins by saying "guess my word."

~Then the teacher vocally segments the word. Students should then say the word.

~The teacher then shows the picture of the word and asks someone to use the word in a sentence.

Words: o-cean pris-on neigh-bor hand-ker-chief hatch-ing oc-to-pus

4. Sound Boxes: (phoneme segmentation and blending & write and blend)

~Each student will need a sound box strip, 3 rocks and a dry erase marker.

~The teacher will say a word and the students will move a rock into a box: one box for each sound.

~Then the students will blend the word together and move the rocks from left to right.

~ The students will say each sound separately demonstrating with their fingers and write a sound in each box.

~ sure students once again blend the sounds back together. Words: rob cob mob dot hot

5. Picture Strips: (Phoneme Matching and initial Sound Fluency)

~Each student will need picture strip and one rock.

~Cover the picture that starts with : /n/ /h/ /l/ /o/ /p/

6. Letter Strips: (Initial Sounds Fluency and Initial Sound Isolation)

~Cover the letter sound that _____ begins with: Words: Lake pumpkin neck hair office

7. Rhyming BINGO Cards (can be used out of group for rhyming bingo)

~Each student needs a BINGO card and tokens to use to play BINGO

~Cover the picture that rhymes with (say the first word of the pair)

better-letter, blizzard-lizard, lumber-number, pickle-nickel, muppet-puppet, riding-hiding, doodle-noodle, madder-ladder, locket-pocket

8. Evaluation:

~Before each child leaves, have them give the name and beginning SOUND of each letter on their strip.