

Dictated Sentences:

Stage 5A & 5B

A Patterns—Level 2

1. May we go to the mall and shop?
2. We had to wait for the train.
3. I saw a man paint the wall.
4. I like to draw on the wall.
5. I sail on a small boat.
6. The boy drank his milk with a straw.
7. Please stay out of the rain.
8. The boy got a small train.
9. The paint made a stain on the wall.
10. We walked down the long hall.

I Patterns—Level 2

1. I will help the girl find her mom.
2. The wild monkey likes to climb trees.
3. The light will blind the man.
4. What kind of bird is in the cage?
5. He rode a bike on his first try.
6. The little child will try her best.
7. She might fly her kite first.
8. I had to buy my first bike.
9. My shirt is too tight.
10. I told the child not to cry.

Dictated Sentences: Stage 5A & 5B

Q Patterns—Level 2

1. I wore my boots to town.
2. The boy can shoot an owl.
3. I will shout for joy!
4. Show me the way to town.
5. The king's crown is in the tower.
6. We have a new brown colt.
7. Count the brown cows in the barn.
8. Count the coins in this box.
9. I live south of town.
10. We found a pot of gold on the roof.

U Patterns—Level 2

1. Sue is a good nurse.
2. June bugs are fun to find.
3. The bus went around a curve.
4. I dropped glue on the rug.
5. The mule has soft fur.
6. The club took a trip on the bus.
7. She had a huge purse.
8. We have fun in our club.
9. Mom hung the rug out to dry.
10. He will glue the rug to the floor.

Dictated Sentences: Stage 5A & 5B

E Patterns—Level 2

1. I dream about going to the beach.
2. I grew wheat in the field.
3. We ate bread with the stew.
4. Please clean your room.
5. The wind blew in the trees.
6. My ball team won the game.
7. The leaf blew down the street.
8. I beat my brother in the race.
9. I spread butter on my bread.
10. The bird flew to the beach.

Word Feature Sentences

Contractions: is, not, had

It's the new dog on the street.

I haven't decided if he's my friend.

She'd taken the new car home.

Haven't you seen the full moon?

I'd taken the book by mistake.

Contractions: would, are, have

You'd be the one she'd like to take home.

We're sure she'd like to go to the lake.

They've all gone back to school.

You're the one I've been looking for.

We'd like to learn how to read.

Dictated Sentences: Stage 5A & 5B

Prefixes: pre, re, un

The preschool teacher was unfair to the child.

Please prepay for your gas.

The premature baby was very small.

I was unable to recopy my homework.

I was unsure if I needed to precook the chicken.

Suffixes: s, es, y to i (add es)

Nurses take many classes before working.

The babies like to play with trains.

We saw turkeys and ponies on the farm.

Our lunches were packed with sweet berries.

The bodies of dogs come in many different sizes.

Homophones: Week 1

We found eight planes for sale.

The wind blew my hair.

His son ate all their cake.

They're happy to hear about the sale.

His son wanted to buy a plane.

(continued)

Dictated Sentences: Stage 5A & 5B

Homophones: Week 2

We drove right by the mailbox.

The maid knew who won the game.

The male deer had a white tail.

He knew the right road to take.

I don't know how the rope got in a knot.

Compound Words: any, night, every

Nightmares are scary for everyone.

Everybody wanted to go on an overnight trip.

At midnight, everyone started yelling.

Everyone stayed at the party until nightfall.

Everyone was tired by nighttime.
